

3 THE LAURAGAIS HILLS

- ❷ Arrived at the statue and at the wash house of Saint-Méen, turn right by taking the path that goes up. Join the D11. Turn right, taking the time to contemplate the view over the village of Nailloux. Continue on the D43H, a pretty ridge road that will allow you to admire the Pyrenees range when the view is clear. After 2.6 km, at the crossroads of the main road (D622), turn right into the car park. It's up to you to find the well hidden in the vegetation!
- ❸ In the middle of the car park, take the small path on your right, which runs along the En Toulouse stream. After crossing 2 footbridges, continue again to the road. Turn left to go up it. Just after the bend that leads to the hall, go up the wooden log steps to the left then cross the road with caution, and go up the stairs by which you started the walk.
